

Coaches' Toolkit

Ramp up your ability to create long & lasting change through your coaching

About this program

As we become more experienced as coaches we look for tools to give clients more extraordinary results with greater ease. The tools introduced in this program will give you a much higher level of flexibility and effectiveness, significantly increasing your ability to facilitate awareness and change with your clients.

The program will include focussing on role plays, group discussion, case studies, generating breakthroughs, dealing with breakdowns in coaching, challenging clients, project blueprint and other skills and tools for helping clients develop insights.

By the end of the course you will know how to:

- Learn how to use several powerful tools that will increase the coaching effectiveness in a variety of contexts.
- Have the ability and confidence to deal with challenging situations and clients.
- Significantly increase ability to facilitate awareness and change with clients
- Develop ICF Competency 3: Creating awareness
